

OST South-East Panorama Reports

These reports are intended to highlight selected science and technology developments with promising prospects for transatlantic cooperation. This work was carried out by the department's team in Atlanta. OST South-East Panorama Reports " Office for Science and Technology (OST) for the United States South-East, Atlanta Embassy of France in the United States of America OST South-East Panorama

Report No. 1, September 15, 2021 R&D Funding Trends Across the US South-East Research Analyst Caroline Schuerger Deputy Attaché Yann Méheust Attaché Rami Abi-Akl

Ost South East Panorama Report No1

Report No. 2, September 28, 2021 Fintech, the unique Atlanta landscape Research Analyst Sophie Goguillon Deputy Attaché Yann Méheust/ Benjamin Boumard Attaché Rami Abi-Akl

Ost South East Panorama Report No2

Reports No. 3, October 13, 2021, Perspectives on Emerging Pathogens and Infectious Diseases Research Analyst Jenna Fulton / Deputy Attachés Yann Méheust, Benjamin Boumard / Attaché Rami Abi-Akl

Ost South East Panorama Report No3

Reports No. 4, October 27, 2021, AI Research Perspectives Through the US South East. Research Analyst Zachary Hopton / Deputy Attachés Yann Méheust, Benjamin Boumard / Attaché Rami Abi-Akl

Ost South East Panorama Report No4

Read more publications on Calaméo

Reports No. 5, January 5, 2022. Perspectives on Biotech Innovation in Florida

Ost South East Panorama Report No5

Read more publications on Calaméo